

at 2 p.m., followed by open cow cutting and novice cow cutting. Performance classes will begin at 6 p.m. Entries come from nine western states according to Robert Clyde, Heber, event chairman.

"Fascination" is the theme of the fair parades along Main Street Friday and Saturday at 6 p.m. Darwin McGuire, parade chairman, announced 200 in prize money for winning floats, bicycles, etc.

LITTLE LEAGUE

Little League baseball district tournament games will be play Thursday, Friday and Saturday. There will also be a carnival, rides, horse races and games. Dances and rodeos highlight evening fare Friday and Saturday. Rodeos begin at 8 p.m. and will feature professional RCA cowboys, speciality acts, clowns, and $1,00 in prize money.

A talent show is also set ofr Saturday, 8 p.m., at the Wasatch Stake Tabernacle. Directed by Mark and Merle Rasband, the contest is limited to Wasatch C o u n t y residents. "The Classics," Bountiful quartet and 1963 winners of Region 12 "Sweet Adelines, Inc." competition, will entertain while judges determine talent contest winners.

ROYALTY REIGNS

Reigning over all fair is "Miss Wasatch County," Beverly Leslie North. Her attendants are Patsy Hilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Hilton, and Karen Plummer, granddaughter of Mrs. Della Peterson.

Lorna Briggs was judged rodeo queen with Peggy Bronson adn Jane Montgomery, attendants. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Briggs, Center Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Bronson, Midway, and Mr. and Mrs. City.

Marvin Barnes is chairman of the Fair Board Association

UPI TELEPHOTO

le
spacecraft which photoplay in the lobby of the headquarters in Wash-

SHIC

... for CAM

